Dear Hunt:

STAT

I have just received a final report on the consideration of the application which [redacted] filed with us. Our Personnel Director is notifying him directly of the results which, I am sorry to say, were negative.

STAT

[redacted] was initially considered for our Junior Officer Training Program and the fact that he was not selected for this group should not reflect adversely on him. We can take only a few young men each year in this capacity, and the screening and competition are severe. When this prospect did not materialize for him, we considered him for other openings but, for the most part, our requirements in the junior professional level are filled from among the graduates of our training program and we were unable to identify an opening which seemed appropriate for a young man of his particular qualifications.

I am sorry that we were unable to take advantage of his interest in working with us at this time, but we will keep his name in mind for any suitable opening which might develop.

Sincerely,

Dear [redacted]

Since we were last in touch with you, we have concluded consideration of your application for the special program discussed with you and for other current openings which might be of interest to you. We must now advise you that there appears to be no immediate opportunity for us to take advantage of your interest in service with this organization.

We shall, of course, retain your file in an active status and advise you should a suitable vacancy occur. We do not have anything definite in mind for you, however, and would want you to feel free to consider other career avenues available to you without any sense of a prior obligation to us.

We appreciate your interest and patience and regret that the immediate outcome of your application was not more encouraging.

Sincerely,

SIGNED
